TECH NIGHT.

Sophomore and Freshmen Classes Will Attend the Park Theatre After Field Day.

For many years it was customary at the Institute to have a cane rush between the Freshmen and Sophomore classes during the early part of November, and from this spree the winning class usually went to some theatre to celebrate the event. Gradually the night at the theatre developed into an essential part of the rush and it became a fixed affair, the right of choosing the theatre fell to the Sophomores. Some five years ago the rush was abolished because of the fatal injury of a student, and in its place Field Day was substituted. The night at the theatre, however, remained as essential a part of Field Day as it had been of the cane rush.

This year the Sophomores took up the matter of the theatre at an early date, and appointed a secret committee to make the necessary preparations. The committee made a thorough investigation, visiting nearly every theatre in Boston, and after careful consideration chose the Park Theatre as the best suited to their purpose. The presentation at the Park this year will be rather better than any attended in the past, and the men will probably find it worth their while to pay more attention to the play than in former years. All the boxes and one hundred and fifty of the best seats in the house have been reserved for 1908, while the entire first balcony has been allotted to '09. These seats may be obtained by Sophomores and Freshmen at the box office of the theatre at any time before next Monday night. The management of the theatre has refused to reserve special tickets after that date.

TECH HOUSE.

The management of Tech House offers several leaderships for newly formed men's classes and boy's clubs. A small class of men who wish to try civil service examinations for the position of mail carriers has recently been organized. The leaders of this class will teach arithmetic, spelling, geography, etc., and will hold weekly meetings from 7.30 to 9 o'clock.

Several game clubs made up of boys, ranging in age from nine to eighteen years, will hold weekly meetings from 7.30 to 9 o'clock. These clubs will take part in the annual inter-settlement tournament this winter, and pool, checkers and basket ball teams will be developed.

Application for leadership or information should be addressed to H. M. Nabstedt, Cage, or 138 Eustis street, Roxbury, Mass.

Tickets for Field Day will go on sale Thursday, Nov. 2, at 12 o'clock in Rogers Corridor, and will be on sale every day from 12 to 2.

FRESHMAN DRILL.

The 1909 Battalion Organization Better than any in Previous Years.

In compliance with general orders issued by Major Wheeler, the Freshmen appeared at drill last Wednesday afternoon, in full uniform. This year the drill is marked by the particularly conspicuous interest and enthusiasm, both on the part of the cadets and the officers.

As much time has been given to the perfection of company manoeuvres, and the different squad formations, at this early date circumstances seem indicative of a well disciplined battalion. The staff officers assisting Major Wheeler are: H. L. Carter, '08, Major; W. O. Ames, '08, Adjutant, and A. W. Heath, '08, Quartermaster. In charge of the drill and companies are: H. T. Gerrish, '08, captain Co. A; W. F. Dolke, '08, captain Co. B; C. E. Whitten, '08, captain Co. C; C. L. Lufkin, '08, captain Co. D. Officers below the rank of captain are to be chosen later from the cadet corps.

A new departure this year in connection with the drill is a more thorough instruction in the use of arms. Not only the manual of arms is to be taken up, but interesting lectures are being given by Major Wheeler in the practical use of the arms. This is further augmented by rifle practice at the Wakefield range every Saturday.

BASKET BALL.

The Basket Ball Team this year is very seriously handicapped. Besides having no place to practice, due to the incompleteness of the new Gym, last year's Captain and Manager have left the Institute. The Assistant Manager, O. S. Lyons, '08, has, however, been preparing a schedule for the first and second teams. Games have been arranged with several New England colleges, including Dartmouth, Brown and Harvard. The team hopes to be able to secure a place to practice immediately, and thus be in fair condition when the Gym is completed. It is not likely that a captain will be elected for the team until shortly before the first game.

INTER-COURSE FOOTBALL.

The Course I and Course XI men in 1907, are arranging to play a game of football with the Miners of the same year. Course I and XI contemplate a thoroughly representative team and if the indications at the present time are realized, there will be an exciting game next Monday afternoon on the Tech Field.

The Civils and their colleagues will meet for practice next Saturday and all men are urged to come out and try for a position.

At the 1907 dinner, Course III arranged for their practice, and both teams will be in prime condition for the game.

M. E. SOCIETY.

Mr. Allen Addressed an Enthusiastic Meeting at the Union on Last Monday Evening.

The Smoker of the Mechanical Engineering Society which was held on Monday evening at the Union, was in the form of an illustrated lecture by Mr. Allen, one of the engineers of the Harrisburg (Penn.) Foundry and Machine Company. Mr. Hershey, the eastern representative of the company was also present. The subject of the lecture and the following discussion was "Does the slow speed Corliss engine meet modern requirements?" As Mr. Allen's company manufactures a high speed, four cylinder, reciprocating engine with an improved cut-off, he naturally took the negative side of the question and demonstrated the advantages of high speed for efficiency and economy in operation. There were twenty-five men present and all were much interested in the lecture. The members of the Society are to make an excursion on Nov. 18, to visit the turbine power house of the Old Colony Electric Railway Company at Quincy.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS.

The Boston Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will hold a regular meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Abstracts of three interesting papers will be read as follows: 1, Performance of Lightning Arresters on Transmission Building. 2, Some Experience with Lightning Protective Apparatus. 3, Note on Lightning Arresters on Italian High-Tension Transmission Lines. All students in Course VI, whether members or not, are invited to attend.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

Dr. Frank B. Jewett of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. will address the Society at the first smoker, to be held Thursday evening, Nov. 2, at Tech Union. The subject will be "Some Limitations of Long Distance Telephony," and all Juniors and Seniors of Courses VI and VIII are cordially invited to attend.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

The 39th Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, will be held at Westfield, Mass., Nov. 10-12. Over three hundred delegates, representing all the colleges and the larger preparatory schools of the two states, will be in attendance. The M. I. T. Y. M. C. A. will send at least five men to the convention, and hopes to take a larger number. Anyone desiring to attend the convention is requested to confer with the College Secretary, D. S. Gates, at the office in Eng. B.

WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., REAR

We are pleased to announce the election of Mr. H. D. Bounetheau, 1908, to the Business Staff of THE TECH.

The opportunity which is offered at this time for work at Tech House is one which no student can pass by without due consideration. Probably no branch of undergraduate activity is so apt to be of value to a man in after years as some one of the several kinds of work which can be taken up in connection with this organization.

In the classes the opportunity is given not only to develop one's power of expression and self control but also to study at close range the lives and incentives of the industrial classes. From the nature of the position which he will occupy in the coming disputes between capital and labor, no man who hopes to become an engineer can neglect a chance to learn of the motives of either side in this great question.

At the 1907 class dinner, in the course of his remarks, President Pritchett touched on the matter of hazing. He cited one or two instances that have happened already this year and deprecated the occurrences greatly. Certain it is that the spirit that induces hazing is no part of the spirit of Technology. It can have no place in the spirit of good-fellowship and mutual helpfulness that is the keynote of the Technology spirit.

Whatever in the way of tradition may grow out of hazing cannot be good tradition. Testing a man's worth and hazing are very different matters. The sooner Freshmen grow beyond it, the sooner Sophomores repudiate it, the better we shall all feel. We need none of it here.

TECHNOLOGY FENCING.

Five men have been out for the empty position on the fencing team. Four are Sophomores and the other is a Freshman. These men are doing good work, and the outlook for the varsity team may be considered as very encouraging. The Sophomores will have a class team, but it is very doubtful as to whether the Freshmen will have one also.

Last year's Freshmen team did not lose a meet, and this year's Freshmen can do as well if they try. A man does not have to know how to fence. The coach will teach him that. New men, and especially the Freshmen, are urged to enter this branch of Technology's athletics, so as to uphold our reputation made in former years.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The tennis tournament in the singles was finished yesterday at Longwood. Larned defeated Coffin by the score of 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. In the semi-final round, Larned defeated Fanning 10-8, 6-0. Coffin defeated Dwight 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, thus bringing Larned and Coffin together in the finals. The finals in the doubles have not as yet been played.

HARE AND HOUNDS.

The next Hare and Hound chase will be held next Saturday, from the Winchester Y. M. C. A. The run will be about six miles, and a good shower bath can be had at the finish. The men will go out on the 2.00 o'clock train from the North Station, track 15. The round trip fare is 20 cents.

LAST CALL FOR '08 CLASS-PIPES.

All men who want class-pipes must make a deposit before Saturday, Nov. 4. Deposit on straight stems, $2.25, on curved stems, $2.00. Per order of the Committee, F. H. McGuigan, P. B. Barrett, H. W. Wellington.

AT THE THEATRES.

Hollis Street Theatre.

One of the long awaited treats of the season is at the Hollis Street Theatre this week, "The Duchess of Dantzic." George Edwardes' London company presented this play in New York all last season with such success, that no other city had a chance to see it. Among the London favorites who will appear in Boston for the first time are Eva Green, in the title role, and Holbrook Blinn, as Napoleon.

Colonial Theatre.

This is the last week of Fritizi Scheff and "Mlle. Modiste" in this city, and this comic opera success will not be seen here again. Crowded houses greet her at every performance, the attendance being just as good as during her first week. The fascinating prima donna has made the greatest hit of her artistic career. Her vivacity as an actress and her brilliancy as a soprano are employed to special advantage in this opera. She has a strong supporting company and the production is staged lavishly.

Park Theatre.

The long awaited, truly great American play has come at last in "The Lion and the Mouse" at the Park Theatre. Charles Klein has taken frenzied finance as his theme and the result is an especially vivid picture of American life of the present day. The cast is exceptionally strong. Edmund Breese and Grace Elliston are among the prime favorites with Boston audiences and show to the greatest of advantage at the head of the company.

Tremont Theatre.

Boston lovers of music will have an excellent opportunity to satisfy their taste during the next two weeks, while the Savage English Grand Opera Company is here. The advance sale of seats is the largest in the history of the Tremont Theatre. During the first week the following will be presented: Monday, "Aida"; Tuesday, "Lohengrin"; Wednesday matinee and night, "Aida" and "Rigoletto"; Thursday and Saturday matinee, "Tannhauser"; Friday, "La Boheme"; Saturday, "Faust."

Castle Square Theatre.

The first of a series of Shakesperian productions, "Much Ado About Nothing," is being presented at the Castle Square this week. It is their intention to present the best of Shakespere's plays for several weeks to come, and judging from the enthusiastic reception of this their first presentation, the series will be one of the most successful run of plays ever seen at this artistic theatre.
